

MISSOURI EVERGREEN CONSORTIUM
TEXT MESSAGING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- Missouri Evergreen and its members occasionally contact registered patrons via text (SMS). We do not share personal information with third parties for marketing purposes.
- The types of messages the library may send include, but are not limited to, customer care or account notifications, such as overdue, hold, and check-out alerts.
- Message frequency may vary; message and data rates may apply.
- For support, text HELP.
- To opt out, text STOP, log in to your account to change notice preferences, or speak with a staff member.
- If you want to restart messages after opting out, text START to 660-324-0279.
- No mobile opt-in data will be shared with third parties for marketing purposes.
- Failure to receive a library account notice does not waive patron responsibility for the timely return of library materials.
